

I don't know what I'd do without captioned TV. Although there is much room for improvement, my world would be so much smaller without it. It is also a safety factor for those of us who live alone and would otherwise not be aware of hurricanes, tornadoes, etc. in our area. I look forward to the time when all programs will be captioned.